

Finance and Investment Committee

Under the general supervision of the Board, the Finance Committee shall exercise control over the funds of the corporation. Funds may be invested by the Finance Committee in securities, banks, instruments, real and personal property, and other assets as the Finance Committee determines to be prudent and appropriate. In general, the Finance Committee exercises the powers of the corporation, and submits a budget annually for Board approval.