Associate Degree
for Transfer
A Degree with a Guarantee.™

English A.A.-T Transfer Degree

Students majoring in English at Cabrillo may take courses in composition, critical thinking, research writing, creative writing, journalism, film, teaching and tutoring techniques, and a wide range of literature courses, including British and American surveys, Shakespeare, Mythology and Folklore, Children's Literature, and studies of Chicana/o-Latina/o and Native American poetry and prose. These courses help students to write effectively and persuasively, to hone their critical thinking skills, and to cultivate their understanding and appreciation of literature in the context of culture. Majoring in English leads directly to Bachelor's and graduate degrees in literature, business, education and teaching, law, communications, and journalism. The first option listed below is the Associate in Arts in English for Transfer (A.A.-T), which is intended for students who plan to complete a bachelor's degree in a similar major at a CSU campus. Students completing these degrees are guaranteed admission to the CSU system, but not to a particular campus or major. This degree may not be the best option for students intending to transfer to a particular CSU campus or to a university or college that is not part of the CSU system. See Associate Degree for Transfer information in the Cabrillo College Catalog. The following is required for all A.A.-T or A.S.-T degrees:

- Completion of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
- Minimum grade-point average (GPA) of at least 2.0 in all CSU-transferable coursework. While a minimum of 2.0 is required for admission, some majors may require a higher GPA.
- Completion of a minimum of 18 semester units in the major with a letter grade of "C" or better, or a "P" if the course is taken on a "Pass/No Pass" basis.
- Certified completion of the California State University General Education-Breadth pattern (CSU GE Breadth) or the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) pattern.

General Information about Meeting Prerequisites

Course prerequisites may be met in the following ways:

- Successful completion of the prerequisite course as listed in the Catalog or Schedule of Classes
- Successful completion of appropriate coursework at another institution
- An appropriate placement score and high school GPA
- For certain courses, equivalent professional experience

If you believe you have completed the listed prerequisites or corequisites for a course as listed in the Catalog or Schedule of Classes, make an appointment to see a counselor.

Certificate of Competency in Academic Writing and Research Literacy

The certificate of competency in academic writing and research literacy is designed to accompany courses that prepare students for transfer to a four-year college or university. The noncredit courses needed for competency introduce students to academic composition, basic computer skills, library research, and web-based resources.

Learning Outcomes

1. Determined by in-class projects and quizzes. Write essays that are clearly organized, overall readable, and fully developed through the process of revision, editing, and proofreading.
2. Determined by in-class projects and quizzes. Demonstrate and apply basic computer technology skills necessary for the completion of college course work, including basic file management, e-mail, document creation, use of library tools, use of word-processing software for document creation, and Internet research.
3. Determined by in-class projects and quizzes. Apply basic technology skills to identify, locate, retrieve, evaluate, and use a variety of reliable information sources, both print and electronic, for specific college courses or course-related work.
4. Determined by in-class projects and quizzes. Understand and employ conventions of acknowledging the work of others.
