Program Description:

The program listed below is a pattern of courses leading to an Associate in Arts Degree only and does not meet the transfer requirement for the International Studies major. Students planning to transfer should consult the catalog of the university to which they intend to transfer.

Modern technology has permanently changed the character of life on this planet. With the speed of modern communication, events that occur half a world away-military, economic, political-impact us almost immediately. Given this global perspective, a major which examines the increasing interdependence of nations from several points of view-political, economic, historical and geographical-will better prepare today's student to live in and contribute to the modern world.

This major is increasingly in demand. UC Davis, UC Santa Barbara, and UC Los Angeles have programs in international relations. Davis has a major in international relations, while UCSB and UCLA offer an emphasis within the political science major.

In the CSU system, CSU Chico and CSU San Francisco offer B.A. Degrees in international relations, and Fresno and Pomona offer M.A. Degrees. Business majors at many campuses offer an international emphasis within the major. In addition, there are a number of private schools, such as Monterey Institute and University of the Pacific, which have programs in this area, in some cases including post-bachelor's degrees.

Model Program for International Studies

The following Model Program fulfills requirements for the A.A. Degree in International Studies at Cabrillo College. Specific lower division major preparation at four-year public institutions in California can be found at www.assist.org. Please see a counselor for advisement for transfer to any four-year institution.
