

PROGRAM OF STUDY

Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer

In the broadest sense, Communication Studies is the study of all human communication with a focus on verbal behavior. It is not limited to the training of great orators as the leaders of society, but includes training for and analysis of communication within small and large groups, between two individuals and even communication within the individual. In all forms of communication, people talk together in order to influence the behavior of other human beings. A speaker can manage essential factors within a communication situation-such as idea selection, language use, and vocal or physical presentation-and can thus affect the behaviors which will be produced. Competent communicators also must be skilled in the critical analysis and evaluation of the messages that they hear in order to formulate effective and appropriate responses.

Topics in this field include: political debates, communicating across cultures, gender differences in communication, conflict resolution and negotiation, uses of power within groups, needs of non-native speakers, listening, and techniques for overcoming speech anxiety. A Baccalaureate and/or graduate degree in Communication Studies can lead to careers in public relations, teaching, consulting, broadcasting, law, ministry, public administration, politics, or any field in which communication skills are highly valued.

The first option listed below is the Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer (A.A.-T), which is intended for students who plan to transfer and complete a bachelor's degree in Communication Studies or a similar major at a CSU campus. Students completing the Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer are guaranteed admission to the CSU system, but not to a particular campus or major. This degree may not be the best option for students intending to transfer to a particular CSU campus or to a university or college that is not part of the CSU system. See Associate Degree for Transfer information in the Cabrillo College Catalog.

The following is required for all A.A.-T or A.S.-T degrees:

- Completion of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
- Minimum grade-point average (GPA) of at least 2.0 in all CSU-transferable coursework. While a minimum of 2.0 is required for admission, some majors may require a higher GPA.
- Completion of a minimum of 18 semester units in the major with a letter grade of "C" or better, or a "P" if the course is taken on a "pass/no pass" basis.
